Professor Andrew Walls Lecture Series

Bible Translation and Scripture Use in History

16th – 20th March 2009

On 16th March 2009, The European Training Programme based at the Wycliffe Centre (Near High Wycombe, Bucks) is hosting a week-long series of lectures by the historian Andrew Walls on the topic of Bible Translation and Scripture Use in Christian History.

Christianity Today commented that, “Andrew Walls may be the most important person you don't know”. As an Honorary Professor at the University of Edinburgh and Professor of the History of Mission at Liverpool Hope University, Professor Walls academic recognition is backed up by his own personal experience of missionary work in Sierra Leone and Nigeria.

Tickets for the lecture series begin at £160. A very limited number of tickets including overnight accommodation are available for the week from £280. (End)
